6 B See the movie... get on a plane

Lesson plan
The topic of this lesson is the movies. In the first half of the lesson there is an article about exotic film locations, that have inspired people to visit them. This provides the context for review and extension of the passive form. In the second half of the lesson, movie vocabulary is presented and then put into practice in a questionnaire where SS talk about their own preferences and experiences. Finally, SS listen to the true story of a young student who met, and then worked for, a world famous movie director.

Optional lead-in (books closed)

- Put SS in pairs or groups of three.
- Write on the board the names of some famous movies you think your SS will know that are set in a different country from where your SS are studying.
- Then teach SS the question: Where is the movie set? (= In which country does the action take place?)
- Set a time limit, e.g. three minutes. Tell each pair or group to write down the country in which each movie is set.

Some possible movies:
Casablanca (Morocco), Zorro (Mexico), Harry Potter (England), Braveheart (Scotland), Independence Day (US), Memoirs of a Geisha (Japan), The Du Vinci Code (France and Britain)

1 READING

- Books open. Focus on the question and elicit answers from the class.
- Ask SS to read the article once and try to guess the name of each movie and where it was filmed. Tell SS to write the name of the movie next to the numbered blank and the name of the country in which it was filmed in the blank in the text. Set a time limit, e.g. five minutes. Check answers.

1 The Beach, Thailand
2 Out of Africa, Kenya
3 The Lord of the Rings, New Zealand

- Focus on the questions and make sure SS understand everything, especially:
was set in a book = when a movie is made using a story or novel (e.g., the Harry Potter books) was set at the beginning of the 20th century = was set in a particular time and in a particular place. Point out that set is an irregular verb (set-set-set).

Let SS read the article again and let them compare their answers with the movie. Sometimes they need to answer with more than

1 The Lord of the Rings
2 All three movies
3 Out of Africa
4 The Beach
5 Out of Africa
6 The Beach
7 Out of Africa
8 The Lord of the Rings

Extra support
You could now go through the whole article, dealing with any vocabulary problems.

- Do this as a whole class activity. Ask the class about each movie and find out how many people have seen it and how many liked it. Then, with a show of hands, find out which of the three countries they would most like to visit.

Extra idea
You could have SS underline or highlight five words or phrases they want to remember from the text. Have them compare their words / phrases with a partner and then get some responses from the class.

2 GRAMMAR passive: be + past participle

- Focus on the instructions. Ask SS which is the first example of a passive in The Beach (is set). Then, give SS a few minutes to underline more examples. Check answers by eliciting and writing the sentences (or parts of sentences) on the board. Elicit the rule for making the passive.

Possible answers
Present passive: It is based on a best-selling book.
Past passive: It was directed by Danny Boyle. / The movie was shot on the island of Phi Phi. Leth. / Most of the hotels were destroyed in 2004 by the tsunami.
Present perfect passive: ... they have now been rebuilt.
The passive is formed with the verb be (in the appropriate tense) and the past participle.

Extra challenge
You could have SS underline more examples of the passive in the other two texts.

- Focus on the chart and have SS underline the verbs in the Active column and tell you the tense of the verb.

inspire: simple present
directed: simple past are making: present continuous
